

And the Lord listened to what they said....

Too many times we forget God is listening and he keeps record of our words.

“Then those who feared the Lord spoke with each other, and the Lord listened to what they said. In his presence a scroll of remembrance was written to record the names of those who feared him and loved to think about him. “They will be my people”, says the Lord Almighty. “On the day when I act, they will be my own special treasure. I will spare them as a father spares an obedient and dutiful child. Then you will again see the difference between the righteous and the wicked, between those who serve God and those who do not.”

Mal. 3:16-18

Every time you talk about the Lord to someone, God is listening and giving credit to your righteousness. Our words are a powerful testimony of who we are, life and death is in them. We need to be constantly remembering. God is listening and our words can bring grief or joy to God’s heart. It strengthens your faith to speak to others of God’s goodness. It puts the devil on notice that whatever he threw at you this week didn’t work. Your faith is still living and active coming out of your mouth. Every time we speak of our God in front of sinners, Jesus our mighty Savior confesses us to the father as his own child. You like to hear your name mentioned in high places?

Confess Jesus and your name comes up to the father at the throne of the universe! Look at the blessing, look at the reward. Simply for talking about God’s goodness over our own lives, God says:

- *They will be my people
- *They will be my own special treasure
- *I will spare them as a father spares his child
- *You will see the difference in those who serve me and those who don’t.

I mean what more could you want? What honor, what significance, what a treasure this is to God! So saints be careful with your words! Give glory and honor to God with your mouth and God will honor you in ways you’ve never dreamed of!!
