

“It felt really good, I feel like I’d like to do it every day”

This was the statement my 10 year old grandson made after receiving the Holy Ghost last Sunday night, after I asked him how it felt to be filled with the Holy Spirit.

“It felt really good”- The Holy Ghost is about feelings. We need the feeling of heaven, the touch from the other side. Our feelings need to be good about our God and our relationship to him and never is it more real than when the Holy Spirit touches us. The joy of the Lord is our strength. We can walk in joy and peace if we cultivate the Holy Spirit daily in our lives.

“I’d like to do it every day”- When you receive the spiritual you want the spiritual. To walk in the spirit is the path of the overcoming life. Notice the prayer to speak in tongues daily was not a burden to the 10 year old mind, it was something that came quite naturally after receiving so wonderful a gift. Miss prayer in the spirit one day and it’s easy to go two. Miss 3 days and it is almost natural to miss a week. This war, this tension between the flesh and Spirit can only be overcome by daily going after the Holy Spirit. Every day is not a delight to me to pray. Some mornings I have to discipline myself to drive to the prayer room. But the initial fleshly objection is quickly gone in a few minutes in the wonderful presence of the Holy Spirit. That encounter, that peace, that presence, keeps you coming back daily for more.

Saints of God let us keep cultivating the Holy Spirit in our lives. It is “life and peace” for those who pursue it.

*Do you ever feel like this when waiting on God?
Is. 40:31...He will renew your strength when we wait on Him.*
