

happy without any reason to be.....

There are 2 minds. The mind of the flesh and the mind of the spirit. The mind of the flesh is wrong thinking based on your thoughts and reasoning. The mind of the Spirit is right thinking based on the Word of God and the inner promptings of the Holy Spirit.

Confusion, frustration, and anxiety are the products of operating in the mind of the flesh. Joy is the product of the Spirit and of following the leading of the Spirit in prayer and fellowship with God. If you operate in the mind of the Spirit, you can have the peace of God which passes all understanding and you can have joy unspeakable and be full of glory right in the middle of terrible trials and tribulations. It doesn't make sense outside of God, to have peace and joy in the middle of trials, but that is exactly what the Holy Spirit does when we turn our hearts and minds to Him.

You are happy just because you know that God is and that he is able to direct and make straight your paths in an exceedingly, abundantly, above all you can ask or think way.

You don't have to try to change yourself or anyone else and that makes you happy. You don't have to worry about tomorrow and that makes you happy. You don't have to worry about yesterday and that makes you happy. You don't have to know how to do everything and that makes you happy. All you need to know is the One who knows. Trying to figure things out will only wear you out, but if you trust God for the answers, you can enter His rest.

I trust many of you are experiencing God in a new way this week. The Lord gave powerful witness last Sunday of our need to cross over and slaughter some long standing enemies. It all begins with us, not God, we have to take responsibility for our thoughts and then God's power will enable us to bring the disciplines into our thoughts. God bless us all as we grow through "crossing over".
