

I have come because of your words....

So said the angel to Daniel who had prayed and fasted for 21 days waiting on heaven's response. I wonder if our words are exciting heaven and causing angels to come down to us? What have you been saying this week? Negative or positive doubt filled or faith filled words matter, they matter to God especially. It is our words of confession and repentance that brings us into the kingdom of God. And it follows that our words either build or destroy depending on which path we take.

3 things to remember:

1. It is your choice: you choose your words based on your thoughts. Choose God each morning, choose to read His Word. Choose to speak His word over your life.
2. It doesn't take much to make a big difference: I heard Joyce Meyer say recently that when Satan comes to her mind, she says out loud, "God is working for me". A few lines of confession from the heart is all it takes to defeat Satan.
3. Practice saying God's Word daily: Practice makes perfect. I write out at least one verse of scripture a day and keep it with me. Any free time I have I pull the card out and rehearse it for myself. If you think the Word, you will speak the Word. You have to be willing to take matters into your own hands. No one is going to do it for you; you are solely responsible for your words, and they ultimately bring life or death. The tongue, though small, is the rudder that steers your whole life!

Pastor Chambers

*Don't miss this dramatic sermon on:
"my heaven"*

The reality of heaven is just around the corner for all God's saints!

Keep your head up and your heart up, cause we're going up!

Sunday March 13th - 10:30am

Calendar of Events

Sun., March 13th

10:30am
"My Heaven"

March 18, 19, 20

Youth Camp
$130.00 ea.

Sun., March 27th

Missionette Silent Auction/
Soup & Salad Luncheon
12:00noon
$7.00 ea.
12 and under $3.00 ea.

Sun., March 27th

9:30am
C.E. Donut Day

Sun., April 10th

10:30 am & 6:00pm
Jonah O'Bonyo