

...and I will rebuke the devourer for your sake.

Recently I heard this phrase. It kept going over and over in my mind, so I knew the Lord was giving me something. I found it in Malachi 3, and sure enough, it was connected to our giving. God said bring the tithe into my storehouse and I will pour out such blessings that there will not be room enough to receive it.

But the next verse is key to the complete picture. It says that, "God will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, so that he will not destroy the fruit of your ground, nor shall the vine fail to bear fruit for you in the field," says the Lord of hosts."

It sent shivers down my spine. Here is God almighty Himself, making a promise for the future of His children. Not only will we be given plenty, but what we are given will not be consumed by the devil. How many people are working themselves in the ground trying to make it? Some even with two jobs and it still isn't enough. It's time to stop. Get out the Word and reevaluate your life in light of Malachi 3.

God means what He says and says what He means in regard to your money decisions. He calls you a thief for withholding what is His!

These are shaky days. Nothing seems certain. We all need God in our corner through our obedience!

God bless you everyone,

Pastor Chambers
